

GUIDE FOR CLUBS

Running your own club

For associations and groups of friends: members, club leaderboard, competition and tournaments in one place.

1. Creating the club

A club is up in minutes and free to try for 30 days, no payment details needed.

- 1 Go to Clubs from the dashboard, choose Start a club and then Regular club.
- 2 Pick a name and an address; your club will live at manychess.org/club/yourname.
- 3 Your club is live right away, with a public profile card where members can knock on the door.

2. Members and joining policy

You decide how people join: freely, after your approval, or by invitation only.

- 1 Set the joining policy under Manage.
- 2 Invite members by username or email address, or create a shareable invite link.
- 3 Appoint extra admins under Members; they can do everything except transfer or delete the club.

Anyone without an account on the site gets one in a single step through the invite link.

3. Playing, club chat and announcements

The club area has its own lobby, a club chat and a board for announcements.

- 1 Under Play, members challenge each other or place an open challenge for the whole club.
- 2 The Overview holds the club chat: short messages to the whole club.
- 3 As an admin you post announcements, complete with replayable games inside.
- 4 Under Live boards you follow all ongoing club games on one screen.

4. The club leaderboard

Every club has its own rating pool, separate from the site rating.

1

Every club game counts for the club rating; games between two regular members also count for their site rating.

2

The leaderboard lives under Leaderboard; whoever has not played a club game yet is listed as unplaced.

5. The chess trainer for your members

Every member of your club can use the chess trainer: a learning path from beginner to well past club level, with coach Caïssa explaining and thinking along.

The path has fifteen levels with four tracks side by side: tactics, openings, middlegame and endgame. Within your level you choose what to work on.

- 2 Players who already know how to play take the ten minute placement test and start at the right level straight away. Choosing a starting point yourself is fine too.
- 3 Mistakes come back through the mistake folder after a day, after three days and after a week. That way what you once got wrong actually sticks.
- 4 The first part of every topic is free. For the rest of the path and for unlimited questions to Caïssa a member needs Plus.

Point new members to the daily Today for you button. It puts together a ten minute session from review, a new lesson and some puzzles; that works better than having to choose something yourself every day.

6. The club competition

Everyone against everyone, with days of thinking time per move. Ideal alongside club night.

- 1 Create a competition under Competition and let members enroll.
- 2 Start it once everyone is in; rounds and standings run themselves after that.
- 3 Standings count points with Sonneborn-Berger as the first tiebreak.

7. Live tournaments

For club night: everyone online at once, short time control, and you start every round.

The screenshot shows the Schaaclub.net website interface. At the top, there's a header with the Schaaclub.net logo, a language selector (NL EN), and buttons for 'Installeren' and 'Dashboard'. Below the header, a navigation bar includes links like 'Terug naar dashboard', 'OD', and the club name 'OBS De Regenboog' with details 'Jeugdclub · 9 leden · Eigenaar'. A message states 'Proefperiode: nog 22 dagen gratis proberen.' Below this is a menu with options: 'Overzicht', 'Spelen', 'Ranglijst', 'Competitie', 'Toernooien' (highlighted), 'Leden', 'Klasoverzicht', and 'Beheer'. A 'Toernooi aanmaken' button is on the right. The main content area says 'Nog geen toernooi. Maak het eerste aan!'. The footer contains four columns of links: 'SCHAAKCLUB.NET' with a description, 'ONTDEKKEN' with links like 'Home', 'Ranglijsten', 'Voor scholen', 'Start een club', and 'Inloggen'; 'JURIDISCH' with 'Privacybeleid', 'Gebruiksvoorwaarden', and 'Cookiebeleid'; and 'CONTACT' with 'Support en contact', 'info@manychess.org', and 'Feedback & verzoeken'. Copyright information '© 2026 Schaakclub · Eén site. Vele varianten.' and 'Gemaakt voor liefhebbers van het spel.' are at the bottom.

- 1 Create a tournament (Swiss or round robin) and pick a time control.
- 2 Members click Join. Untick absentees and start the round; everyone goes to their board automatically.
- 3 After each round you see the standings with Buchholz; after the last round the winner is known.

8. Trial period and paying

The first 30 days are free. After that a club costs 99 euro per year.

The screenshot shows the 'Beheer' (Manage) page for a club named 'OBS De Regenboog'. The interface includes a top navigation bar with 'Installeren', 'Dashboard', and language options. Below the club name, it indicates 'Jeugdclub', '9 leden', and 'Eigenaar'. A message states 'Proefperiode: nog 22 dagen gratis proberen.' A horizontal menu contains 'Overzicht', 'Spelen', 'Ranglijst', 'Competitie', 'Toernooien', 'Leden', 'Klasoverzicht', and 'Beheer'. The 'Instellingen' (Settings) section on the left includes fields for 'Naam' (OBS De Regenboog), 'Clublogo' (with a 'Logo kiezen' button), and 'Omschrijving (op het visitekaartje)' (with a rich text editor). The 'Abonnement' (Subscription) section on the right shows the trial period and offers 'Online betalen (iDEAL of kaart)' and 'Factuur ontvangen (voor scholen)'. A 'Club verwijderen' (Remove club) section with a 'Verwijderen' button is also present.

- 1 Under Manage you arrange payment: online with iDEAL or card, or by invoice.
- 2 In the customer portal you can view invoices and manage or cancel the subscription.
- 3 Without a subscription the club becomes read only after the trial; nothing is lost.
